

INSPECTOR REBUS

returns for one night only in

Murder for a beer

An Evening with the UK's Top Crime Writer

IAN RANKIN

The home of Inspector Rebus' favourite pint.

Thursday 4th March, 2010

in Edinburgh's famous Caledonian Brewery

A charity event in aid of ROYAL BLIND
SERVICES FOR THE BLIND

Orion Fiction, a division of The Orion Publishing Group

*light
UP lives*

Institute of Fundraising

FundRazr
Charitable World

Charity No. SC017167

A charity event in aid of

ROYAL BLIND
SERVICES FOR THE BLIND

Murder for a beer

Thursday 4th March, 2010
in Edinburgh's Caledonian Brewery

Edinburgh's famous Caledonian Brewery plays host to a very unique evening. Top crime writer Ian Rankin will read a short story that he has specially created for this event.

Inspector Rebus is brought in to solve a murder at the brewery. Come along to find out who would "Murder for a beer"?

A hot and cold buffet is included in the ticket price of £40 in addition to a fine selection of Caledonian Beers and wine.

Tickets for this event are limited.

For full details of this exciting event or to book your seat(s) please contact: David Brown at Royal Blind on 0131 229 1456 mailto:david.brown@royalblind.org

light
UP lives

Charity No. SC017167

Orion Fiction, a division of The Orion Publishing Group

